DIOCESAN EVENTS/NEWS

New edition of The Catholic Accent TV Show airing now

The Catholic Accent TV Show, Receive and Share, is always on at TheAccentOnline.org. On this edition of The Catholic Accent, we are reminded of Jesus' miracle of the loaves and fishes and how disciples of Christ, throughout the Diocese of Greensburg, are sharing what they have received. Watch how Ukrainian refugees are making new lives and careers because of the generosity of many through the Diocese of Greensburg Ukrainian Relocation Project.

Rather than accepting the declining participation in the Church, Bishop Larry J. Kulick is seeking support in finding new ways of engaging activities and experiences designed to form disciples who will respond to the needs of our people. And we introduce you to the two men who are being honored at the Catholic Charities Communities of Salt and Light Award Dinner next month.

Diocese to offer Kerygma Weekend Discipleship Retreat May 17-19 at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Greensburg

The Diocese of Greensburg Office of Faith, Family and Discipleship is sponsoring the Kerygma Weekend Discipleship Retreat Friday-Sunday, May 17-19, at Christ our Shepherd Center, Greensburg. The retreat is open to everyone and is an invitation to form a meaningful relationship with Jesus Christ. The retreat will begin with the core message of the Gospel and will allow the faithful to renew their baptismal promises, their experience with the sacrament of confirmation and their experience of receiving the Eucharist. The retreat is a launching point to have the faithful become more involved in their parishes or communities within their parishes along with helping them understand the path God has chosen for them through catechesis. Its goal is to create intentional disciples of Christ who will return to their parishes with a desire to help create a more vibrant parish life and help those who may have fallen away to return. For registration or more information, visit DioceseofGreensburg.org/Kerygma.
